

BATTERSEA

CONCERT PARK

Home of experiential sound.

Based in the 200 acres of Battersea Park, this space presents an eclectic mix of musical compositions. It features established as well as seasonal performers from the natural and human world, staged against an orchestrated, partially competing green backdrop.

Follow your ears or find us at London SW11 4NJ, United Kingdom.

Listen and tell – Please send us your feedback.

HELLO@BATTERSEACONCERTPARK.ORG

WWW.BATTERSEACONCERTPARK.ORG

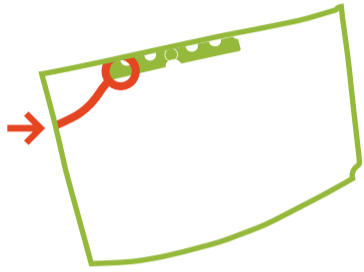

SUMMER PROGRAM

21ST JUNE - 23RD SEPTEMBER 2014

Tune in, listen and choose your personal acoustic experience. Designated stages for guaranteed performances alternate with others which vary in functionality. Artists practice and perform throughout the entire venue of Battersea Concert Park. A unique sound may well linger behind the next tree.

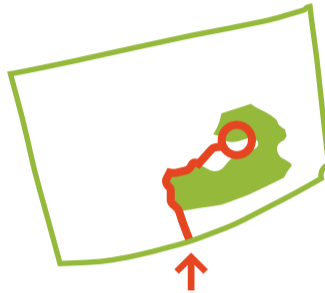

Playing with your senses since 1858.

Monday to Thursday
3PM - 5PM

SYMPHONY SW11

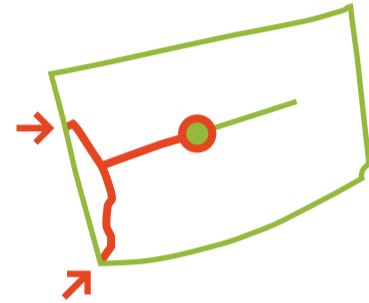

A contemporary piece, best enjoyed on semi-sunny afternoons. A slight breeze adds a soothing undertone of rattling leaves to this deliberately confused adaptation.

Monday to Saturday
6AM - 8AM

HERON KINGDOM

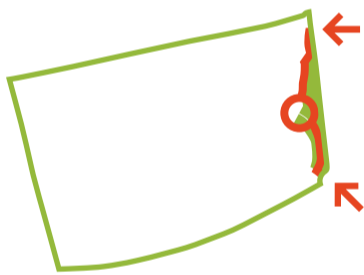

The aloofness of elegance is at the heart of Heron's production of the Dawn Song. Parts range from a duet's potent cackle to the silence of an entirely absent long-legged artist.

Saturday and Sunday
All-day

AIRPHONY

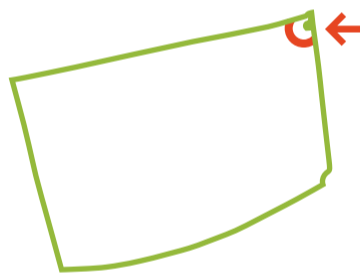

International Aero Engine V2527-A5 is joined by Eurocopter EC 135T for an equally engaging and droning acoustic masterpiece, borderline systematic intrusion of space.

Monday to Friday
10AM - 5PM

UNRESERVE

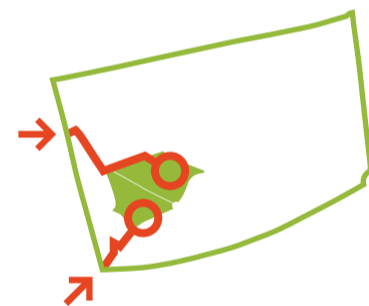

Set within the imposed reality of a natural reserve, this adverse mix of green habitat and unforgiving industrial sound will transport you into the body of a disrupted environment.

Monday to Sunday
5PM - 7PM

CARCOPHONY

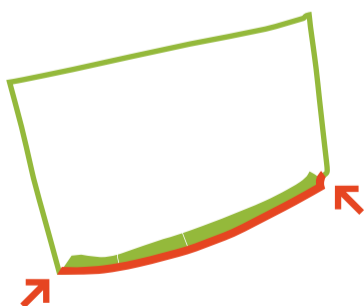

Audience meets turbulent howling engines at the end or beginning of the Alameda. A concert from the TfL that sets Chelsea's Concerto No. 29,375 (vehicles per day).

Friday to Sunday
10AM - 2PM

THE FIELDS

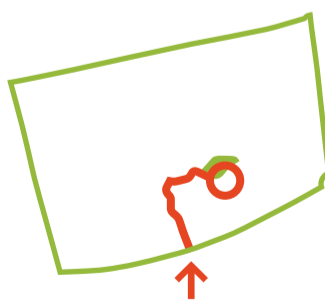

A lengthy showpiece of shifting moods and varying intensity depending on the time of day. Be prepared to participate – scream and shout – close to the playground stage.

Monday to Friday
10AM - 7PM

CRODYSSEY

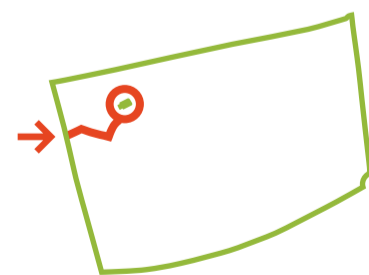

Step through the Sun Gate, turn right. Dainty, black figures loom between trees and a parking lot. Prick up your ears for a game of hide and seek...

Monday to Friday
6AM - 8AM and 7PM - 9PM

SONGTUARY

The Songtuary delivers an elaborate summer composition works by Blackbird, Robin, Chaffinch, amongst others.

Monday to Friday
6AM - 10AM

SECRET CHORUS

Move into three-dimensional musical territory by visiting this secluded location. Late-Romantic nostalgia is coordinated with the rise of the sun. Limited seats available.